About Me

Hi, I'm Madison and I am the kitchen manager. I'm someone who loves exploring new places across the United States, whether it's a weekend getaway or a spontaneous road trip. I'm also a big dog lover, and spending time with my furry friends always brings me joy. Above all, I value the time I spend with my family and friends, as those connections and memories mean the most to me. Life is about adventure, love, and creating lasting moments.
